

MOUNT GRANT PRESERVE

San Juan Island

Directions

From the Friday Harbor Courthouse
(mileage approximate):

- 0.0 Turn right on Guard St.
- 2.75 Guard Street becomes Beaverton Valley Rd.
- 3.9 Beaverton Valley Rd. becomes West Valley Rd. at intersection with Boyce Rd.
- 4.9 Turn left and look for Mount Grant parking on the left.

When you visit:

- Pedestrians, bicycles, and horses remain on designated roads and trails.
- No fires or camping.
- Dogs must be leashed.
- No hunting.
- Take nothing
- Leave nothing.
- Winter 2017-18 driving access to the ridgetop (weather permitting) will be available 9am—4pm:
 - November 10, 24 & 26
 - December 24
 - January 1 & 14
 - February 18
 - April 1
 - May 13

Located between Mount Dallas and Cady Mountain on San Juan Island, Mount Grant Preserve protects and provides access to 141 acres of native forest and meadow. Visitors to the ridgetop summit are rewarded with sweeping vistas in all directions.

A road leading to the summit is open daily for pedestrian and non-motorized use. Winter 2017-18 driving access will be available 9am to 4pm, weather permitting, on the days listed to the right.

