MOUNT GRANT PRESERVE
San Juan Island

Directions
From the Friday Harbor Courthouse (mileage approximate):
0.0 Turn right on Guard St.
2.75 Guard Street becomes Beaverton Valley Rd.
3.9 Beaverton Valley Rd. becomes West Valley Rd. at intersection with Boyce Rd.
4.9 Turn left and look for Mount Grant parking on the left.

When you visit:
- Pedestrians, bicycles, and horses remain on designated roads and trails
- No fires or camping
- Dogs must be leashed
- No hunting
- Take nothing
- Leave nothing
- April—September driving access to the ridgetop (weather permitting) will be available Wednesdays & Sundays, 10am—7pm
- October—March driving access to the ridgetop (weather permitting) will be available Sundays, 10am—4pm

Located between Mount Dallas and Cady Mountain on San Juan Island, Mount Grant Preserve protects and provides access to 250 acres of native forest and meadow. Visitors to the ridgetop summit are rewarded with sweeping vistas in all directions. A road leading to the summit is open daily for pedestrian and non-motorized use. Driving access to the summit is open year-round. See chart to right for days and open hours.